

Join the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit Dis- Parcel Tax Fiscal Oversight Committee

Get involved.

The Board of Directors is accepting applications to fill one vacancy on the Parcel Tax Fiscal Oversight Committee. This is a non-paid, volunteer position with a term of office of three-years.

About the Committee.

The Parcel Tax Fiscal Oversight Committee was first established as the Measure AA Oversight Committee in 2003 by the District's Board of Directors. Although the Committee's name has changed over time, its primary responsibility is to review the most recent fiscal year end annual audit to determine whether funds generated by the District's parcel tax measures have been expended in accordance with the intentions of the voters. The Committee is required to provide a report of its findings to the Board of Directors on an annual basis.

The Committee is composed of seven members who represent diverse interests and geographic distribution of the communities served by AC Transit in Special Transit Service District One.

Special Transit Service District One.

Special Transit Service District One consists of 11 cities and adjacent unincorporated areas in Alameda and Contra Costa Counties, including: Alameda, Albany, Berkeley, El Cerrito, Emeryville, Hayward, Oakland, Piedmont, Richmond, San Leandro and San Pablo. Unincorporated areas include Ashland, Castro Valley, Cherryland, El Sobrante, Fairview, Kensington, and San Lorenzo.

Appointment Process.

Upon review of the applications, letters of interest, and resumes received, the Board of Directors will determine whether to conduct interviews or make direct appointments to the Committee. All appointments are at the Board's discretion.

Membership Requirements

Members of the Committee must reside within Special District One and cannot be an employee, vendor, contractor or consultant of AC Transit.

General understanding of basic accounting principles and experience in interpreting financial documents are highly desirable.

Terms

Terms on the Committee are for three-years and are subject to reappointment by the Board of Directors.

Meetings

The Committee is required to meet annually after the preparation of independently audited financial statements and may hold additional meetings if necessary.

All meetings are subject to the Brown Act and are open to the public.
