

Maintenance and Transportation Divisions Of The Quarter — Congratulations to Division 3 for earning the Maintenance Division of the Quarter and Division 6 for earning the Transportation Division of the Quarter award for Q2 of FY 2023. The Maintenance award is given to the Division with superior achievement in road calls, attendance, bus cleanliness, and preventative maintenance inspection. For Transportation, the award is based on the following criteria: on-time performance, accident rate, absenteeism reduction, log-on rate, complaints responded to in a quarter, operator unscheduled availability, overtime reduction, and the number of commendations. Divisions receive various recognition and earn a spot on their respective perpetual trophy. We are very proud of the continued efforts of our essential frontline employees to achieve and surpass established key performance indicators, which support the District's Strategic Plan Goals and Objectives.

Bus Reliability — Miles Between Chargeable Road Calls (MBCRC) is one indicator of the health and reliability of the bus fleet. The District established a Key Performance Indicator (KPI) at 7,500 miles between chargeable road calls to track performance in this area. During the calendar year 2022, miles between chargeable road calls were above the established goal 12 months with an average performance of 9,460 MBCRC for the 12-month period.

New Recruits: Service Supervision recently promoted three Transportation Supervisors to the elite ranks of Senior Transportation Supervisor. Keyoila Colbert, Alexandra Poole, and Donavan Crews are currently participating in supervision management training to aid them in their new roles. All three have been employed with AC Transit in various capacities for a total of 41 years of service.

We look forward to these three professionals bringing their experience, transit expertise, and depth of knowledge to the Supervision Department.

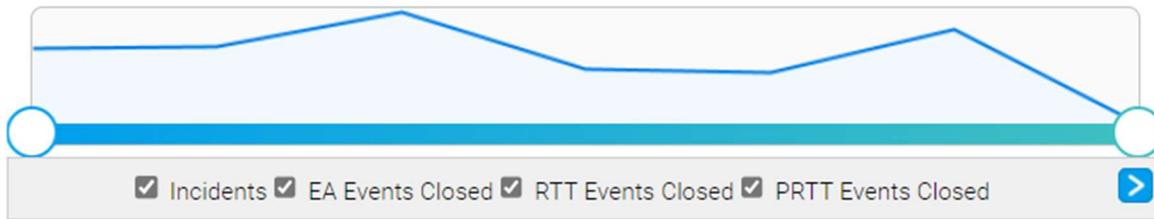

OCC – The Operations Control Center (OCC) is the central brain that manages day-to-day, hour-by-hour activities in the field; it is in the OCC where the magic happens to ensure our service is as best as it can be for our riders. OCC Controllers manage incredibly fast-paced disruptions and incidents that cause unacceptable delays and other impacts on service reliability.

We rely on a well-trained, highly professional, motivated, and determined workforce to take on this challenge. Transportation Supervisors must have field experience as a road supervisor and complete a specified training program to qualify as an OCC Controller. Over the past seven days, OCC handled 9 Emergency Alarms, 59 high-priority radio communication calls, 2,083 standard radio communication calls, and filed 1,950 incident reports. The Controllers remained poised and ready to assist the District's Operators who are operating service around the clock in our 364 square miles of the service area.

Labor Relations -The Labor Relations unit conducted a Contract Management Educational Series (CMES) in November and December 2022. It consisted of a five-part virtual educational course designed to familiarize supervisors with a management-level overview of goals when managing union partnerships, understand union agreements, and effectively handle most common day-to-day labor relations matters. Twenty-four managers and supervisors completed the series. The next CMES is scheduled for Fall 2023.

Learning and Development- The Learning and Development team continues to be busy this Winter 2023! A major eLearning project is underway, which will include 430 microlearning vignettes and short assessments. The project's goal is to provide training for managers focusing on core competencies. The eLearning will be easy to access, brief and concise, and easy to digest. The content in the eLearning will not only help to fill a void in our management training but also support the District's goal to develop our employees professionally. In this fiscal year, we have conducted an average of four training sessions per month and have served a total of 135 employees who have attended our professional development training. One participant commented, "I liked that the training was not a training manual, one-way instructional type course, but rather it was very interactive. Also, it reinforced information I knew and still taught me new things." Last, the Learning and Development and Talent Acquisition teams collaborated to create a new Interview Feedback Form. Interview panelists will complete this form to provide consistent and timely feedback to internal employees who were not selected in the process. We expect this tool will assist employees as they continue their professional and career development with AC Transit.

Leave Management -Although the California COVID-19 Supplemental Paid Sick Leave (SPSL) ended on December 31, 2022, employees continue their outreach to the District's COVID-19 Hotline for employee guidance and support. We have attended to an average of 30 weekly calls, among which 14 were confirmed positive COVID-19 cases in January 2023.

Coalition Urges Legislature to Fund Transit- In response to the Governor's proposed budget, a coalition of 60 transit operators and transportation advocates sent a letter to Budget Chairs Skinner and Ting urging support for public transit. The January 18 letter called on the legislature to honor the transit investments made in the current year's budget. It also requested new, multi-year funding in next year's budget to prevent transit from falling off a fiscal cliff and help attract riders back to transit. New state funding will also provide the time, and support operators need to pursue additional, long-term funding- for example, via a regional ballot measure- that helps agencies fully recover from the pandemic and create the systems that best meet riders' needs.

In tandem with this request, the District's legislative team is scheduling meetings with our Sacramento delegation to update them on AC Transit's specific financial situation and asking them to support our coordinated ask for additional operating dollars. The General Manager joined several other transit agency executives and traveled to Sacramento on February 1, 2023, to meet with the Bay Area Delegation. The fiscal cliff and efforts to attract riders back to transit were among the topics discussed.

Director Syed attends East Bay EDA 2023 Kickoff Luncheon - AC Transit Board Director Sarah Syed, Ward 3, attended the East Bay EDA's (Economic Development Alliance) 2023 Luncheon Kick Off for a conversation with California Attorney General Rob Bonta at the Terrace Room. Director Syed joined Ward 3 residents Alameda Mayor Marilyn Ezzy Ashcraft and Attorney General Rob Bonta in discussions of the state's top lawyer and law enforcement official's responsibilities and duties, which include safeguarding Californians from harm and promoting community safety, preserving California's spectacular natural resources, enforcing civil rights laws, and helping victims of identity theft, mortgage-related fraud, illegal business practices, and other consumer crimes.

In 2021, we trained 100% of our frontline employees, joined 1.3 million transportation employees trained nationally and continue to do so annually, and launched a public awareness campaign working with local law enforcement agencies: Alameda County Sheriff and the District Attorney offices of Alameda and Contra Costa Counties. In 2022, the American Public Transportation Association (APTA) awarded the District an Ad Wheel Award -- Best Marketing and Communications Educational Initiative for its Transportation Leaders Against Human Trafficking campaign.
