

Application

A paper version of the application may be requested by emailing districtsecretary@actransit.org.

The AC Transit Board of Directors is seeking members of the public who are interested in volunteering to serve on the AC Transit District Retirement Board. There is currently one vacancy for a public member representative.

Applications will be accepted until 12:00 Noon on Friday, January 31 2025. The appointment will be made by the District's Board of Directors.

About the Retirement Board

The AC Transit Retirement Board oversees a non-contributory defined benefit plan with assets of over $900 million. There are approximately 2,200 retirees or beneficiaries currently receiving benefits from the Plan, along with approximately 2,300 active participants.

There is no compensation for attendance at meetings or for time engaged in Retirement Board issues. Related expenses for conferences or education may be reimbursed upon approval of the Retirement Board.

The AC Transit Retirement Board consists of five members. Two are selected by ATU Local 192, the District's largest union. One additional employee member and two public members are appointed by the District's publicly-elected Board of Directors.

Responsibilities of the Retirement Board

The AC Transit Retirement Board has the following responsibilities:

- Interprets the Retirement Plan on behalf of current employees and current and future beneficiaries;
- Selects legal counsel to provide guidance to the Retirement Board and staff and to handle legal matters;
- Retains and monitors investment consultant(s) and advisors;
- Retains and monitors fund managers to manage the Plan assets;
- Retains an actuary to help determine how much money needs to be contributed by the District annually to the Plan;
- Sets investment strategies, determines appropriate risk levels, and establishes asset allocation policies for Plan assets;
- Authorizes payments of approved expenses;
- Oversees auditing of the Plan funds;
- Contracts with a custodial bank(s) to hold the assets;
- Selects and evaluates staff to administer the Plan on a "day-to-day" basis;
- Terminates contracts when appropriate;
- Determines if applicants are qualified to receive benefits, including granting or denying applications for disability retirements;
- Reviews ongoing qualifications for retirees on disability status; and
- Advises the AC Transit District Board of Directors on issues relating to the Plan.

Essential Qualifications for applicants include:

- No conflict of interest in any investments or issues facing the Retirement Board. In addition,

Retirement Board members are precluded from selling or providing any investment product that would be considered an asset of the fund to any public retirement system in California (GC 7513.95). NOTE: the successful candidate will be required to file a Statement of Economic Interest (FPPC Form 700) regarding potential conflicts-of-interest, within 30 days after assuming duties as a member of the Retirement Board, and annually thereafter, and upon leaving office).

- Understanding of fiduciary responsibilities of the Retirement Board;
- Ability to maintain strict confidentiality regarding certain matters brought before the Retirement Board, including medical and/or personnel records; and
- Ability to commit to attendance at a minimum of one Retirement Board meeting per month (generally 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on the last Thursday of each month, except November and December) and occasional special meetings as necessary. This includes committing time to reviewing materials in advance of Board meetings.

Other Desirable Qualifications for applicants include:

Experience or knowledge in some or all of the following areas:

- Investments (especially institutional), accounting, finance or actuarial study, preferably related to public retirement systems;
- Defined benefit retirement plans;
- Public employee or other pension benefit plans administration;
- Disability benefits, administration, evaluation of qualifications;
- Comprehending and interpreting retirement plan documents;
- Understanding of the California Open Meeting Law;
- Ability to attend occasional conferences or other meetings, paid for by the Retirement Plan, to obtain/maintain training and education on retirement or fiduciary issues.

Selection Process and Term of Office

Completed and signed application, including a resume and letter of interest, must be received no later than 12:00 Noon on Friday, January 31, 2025. The deadline is firm; therefore, application materials that are incomplete or received after the deadline will not be submitted to the Board for consideration. Any information submitted to the Board of Directors will be a matter of public record. Applicants are sought from the five-county Bay Area Region, which consists of the Counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, San Francisco, San Mateo and Santa Clara.

Selection of members shall be made by the District’s Board of Directors as soon as possible after the close of the recruitment period. Once designated and appointed by resolution of the District Board of Directors, appointees shall serve for a two-year period commencing on April 1, 2025 and ending on March 31, 2027.

I can attend monthly meetings which are usually held on the second Monday.

Please answer each of the following 3 questions as completely as possible.

Additional documents may be uploaded at the end of the application.

1. Please describe the insights, knowledge and experience and/or education you would bring to the Retirement Board, including but not necessarily limited to any of the following: defined benefit pension plans; institutional or other investing; retirement plan administration; and retirement challenges.

I am a senior partner in the San Francisco based law firm of Trucker Huss APC, which specializes in ERISA and employee benefits. I have lived in the East Bay since 1969 and I am a two time graduate of UC Berkeley. I resided in Berkeley for 6 years and resided in Oakland for 12 years and rode the AC Transit buses to my job in San Francisco. I currently reside in Moraga in Contra Costa County and commute on BART. For the past 47 years, I have practiced law in the area of retirement plans and other employee benefits. I have focused my practice on retirement plan fiduciary responsibilities and advising retirement plan committees and fiduciaries on retirement plan investments, including asset allocations and selecting and monitoring various investment vehicles and managers. I have for many years represented retirement plan fiduciaries in retirement plan based litigation governmental audits and investigations. I have also advised during that time on issues of retirement plan administration and operations, interpretation of retirement plan documents, issues of eligibility for retirement and other employee benefits, consulting with benefits staff on day to day operations and advising senior management on employee benefit issues. Over the years I have drafted, prepared and reviewed hundreds of retirement plan documents and amendments for all types of retirement plans, including defined benefit plans. I have advised on retirement plan compliance with Internal Revenue Code requirements and represented retirement plans in dealings with the IRS. I have negotiated and reviewed numerous recordkeeping agreements, investment management agreements, investment consultant agreements, trust agreements and custodial agreements and other retirement plan service provider agreements. I have attended numerous retirement plan Board and committee meetings as legal advisor on plan investments and administration, including working closely with the investment consultants. At the present time, I personally am a fiduciary committee member, and Chair, responsible for managing all aspects, including investments and administration, of a retirement fund with over $7 billion in plan assets and with over 4,000 participating employers. Each year I attend numerous conferences and meetings on retirement plan issues and I frequently present at these conferences on issues of fiduciary responsibilities and retirement plan litigation. I have served on a pro bono basis as a mediator for the Alternative Dispute Resolution program for the United States District Court for the Northern District of California for over 80 cases, the majority of which have concerned eligibility for disability benefits.

2. Please list the specific areas of interest you would best represent on the Retirement Board and reasons why.

Interpretation and application of retirement plan terms, selection and monitoring of plan investments, asset allocations, selection and monitoring of investment consultants and other advisors, actuarial issues, payment of proper plan expenses, consulting with plan auditors, determining eligibility for plan benefits, including disability benefits, advising senior management and Board members. Please see my answers to the previous questions.

3. Individuals currently involved in the community can bring special insights to the Board. In what ways are you active in the community? (List organizations or community activities with which you have been involved.)

Re: AC Transit District Retirement Board

Dear Madam or Sir:

I write in my individual capacity. I am interested in serving on the AC Transit District Retirement Board and I have filed an application online.

I am a long-time resident of Alameda and Contra Costa counties, and I have always commuted to my job by public transit, including the AC Transit Transbay buses. I have spent my professional legal career providing advice on retirement plan administration and plan investments. With this experience, I believe I can serve well as a member of the AC Transit District Retirement Board and help provide retirement income security to the thousands of hard-working employees of the District.

Thank you for consideration of my application.

Very truly yours,

R. Bradford Huss
