Board Discussion:

Director Peeples was glad staff was building back service and working with operations and bus operators to improve running times to make sure the service works better.

Director Walsh asked for clarification of the changes, which were minor changes and which lines were being restored. She also asked what kind of outreach would be made to riders to notify them of the changes. Mr. Martin made additional comments on the amount of service that would be brought back in December. Executive Director Beverly Greene advised that there would be extensive communications with riders about the December service changes.
